

Wake County Senior Games Corn Hole Volunteers

Event Description:

Thank you in advance for your involvement! Wake County Senior Games are for all individuals 50 and up. The WCSG rely heavily on volunteers to help us make these games a success. As volunteers you would assist with several different jobs associated with individual's events.

For Corn Hole the following jobs will be assigned when you arrive*:

- Set up (place & set up equipment, put out tables, help staff get ready!)
- Participant Check in, give out shirts and hand out snacks
- Scorers/judges (you will receive onsite training when you arrive!)
- Clean up (gather and remove equipment, box up left overs, etc.)

You should wear closed toe shoes, dress for being in an activity area, comfortable shoes a must! There will be lots of standing on a hard surface. These jobs require good eye site and concentration! We do provide t-shirts for our volunteers on a first come, first serve basis.

We provide some drinks and snacks however if you have special diet needs, please bring! Lunch is not served.

There could be bending involved with this event, however it is indoors!

The event location is at Crabtree Valley mall in Raleigh.

The rules for these events can be found here: NC Senior Games (Scroll through the list of events and click on Corn Hole.)

You will be asked to sign this waiver when you arrive, or if you'd prefer to print it and sign and bring with you that would be great!

Finally, be ready to cheer on our athletes! Invite your friends to come watch this amazing event! And we thank you again for your support!

Event Coordinator: Todd Riddick, City of Raleigh, todd.riddick@raleighnc.gov or (919)278-6275.

Although we hope to stick to this time frame, be aware that we may go over or even be done early depending on number of athletes that register!

This volunteer opportunity is not to be used towards court-appointed/ suggested community service hours.
